Recent feedback from some of Barry's clients...

We had a wonderful experience in dealing with First National Margaret River in the sale of our home and purchase of our block. Barry's professionalism resulted in a super swift sale of our home with a minimum of fuss. Special thanks to his personal assistant Beth who attended to our every need with efficiency and provided clarity to the sale process with excellent communication and advice. We would not hesitate to recommend First National Margaret River to others.

We recently finalised a purchase of a property in Margaret River. The service we received from start to finish from Margaret River First National was exceptional. We were on a very short time frame both times we travelled over from Victoria, to inspect properties. Barry & Beth made the experience feel effortless, there is no way we could have coordinated the inspections on our own, also Barry's knowledge of the area was invaluable to us in making our decision. Both my husband & I highly recommend Barry & his team. Absolute super stars of the real estate game!

- Amy Clapham

Barry and Beth at First National were phenomenal with helping us through with our first land purchase. They went above and beyond to make the process simple and Barry even met with us after hours to help with document signing etc. I would highly recommend them for your next lifetime investment!! Amazing guys thankyou from the bottom of our hearts for everything!

Helpful Information

Investing in commercial real estate is a huge financial commitment, so just as well it's one of the things in life that DOES come with a guidebook!

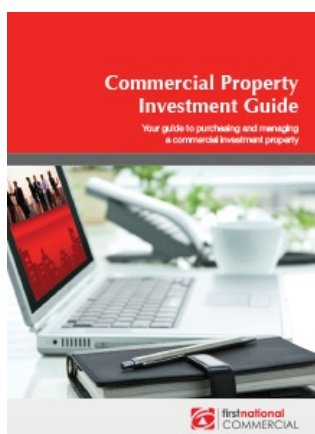

There is more to property investment than residential buying and selling, so for those interested in diversifying their property portfolio, commercial property may be the next logical step. Assuming you can secure the finance and have the patience to wait for longer term results, a commercial property investment can make a great addition to your investment strategy and, best of all, you can have it all managed by your friendly local Commercial Property Manager at Margaret River Real Estate.

One of the many advantages of commercial property investment is the potential for a strong return on your investment as market needs change. Choosing the right property in the ideal location can deliver great results, especially in situations where local demand for property is strong and supply is limited.

If you are interested in dipping your toe into the commercial property market, the first thing you can do is download and read our Commercial Property Investment Guide and then contact Barry Granville on 0407 572 937 for specific advice. His understanding of the nuances of the local market will provide you with expert guidance and in the longer term, proactive management of your asset to ensure it retains its value, increases in value over time, and that the yield is maximised over the duration of your investment.
